JURY DEMAND

6. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury in this action.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Francisco Suriel is a resident of Kings County in the City and State of New York.

8. Defendant Port Authority of New York and New Jersey (“Port Authority”) is a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York and New Jersey. It operates, maintains and controls the Port Authority Police Department (“PAPD”), including all the police officers thereof.

9. The defendant Port Authority is responsible for the policies, practices and customs of the PAPD as well as the hiring, screening, training, supervising, controlling and disciplining of its police officers and civilian employees. At all times relevant times all defendant officers were acting for, upon, and in furtherance of the business of their employer and within the scope of their employment.

10. The individually named defendants, at all times relevant herein, were officers, employees and agents of the PAPD. The individual defendants are sued in their individual capacities.

11. At all times relevant herein, all individual defendants were acting under color of state law.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

12. At approximately 5:15 p.m. on August 6, 2018, Mr. Suriel was working as a driver for the ridesharing service Via.

13. Mr. Suriel was lawfully present in the “arrivals” area of JFK Terminal 8 awaiting his assigned passenger when two PAPD officers, believed to be defendant Samuel and defendant Telesford, approached plaintiff’s vehicle.

14. The officers did not identify themselves to Mr. Suriel, who speaks Spanish.

15. The individual defendants who did not approach plaintiff observed the encounter and had the opportunity and duty to intervene.

16. The defendants forcefully pulled Mr. Suriel from his vehicle and assaulted him repeatedly, causing him to sustain serious physical injuries.

17. Even though Mr. Suriel had committed no crime or offense and the defendants lacked even arguable probable cause to do so, they handcuffed and arrested Mr. Suriel.

18. The defendants took Mr. Suriel to a precinct.

19. At the precinct the individual defendants falsely informed employees of the Queens County District Attorney's Office that they had observed plaintiff commit the misdemeanor crimes of unlawful solicitation of ground transportation, resisting arrest and obstructing governmental administration. The defendants prepared, forwarded and signed false paperwork containing fabricated factual allegations.

20. At no point did the individual defendants observe plaintiff commit any crime or offense.

21. Plaintiff was eventually transported to Queens Central Booking, where he was detained at length.

22. Mr. Suriel was ultimately arraigned and released on his own recognizance.

23. On or about February 20, 2019, the criminal charges were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal under circumstances indicative of innocence and with defendants lacking evidence to sustain the criminal charges.

24. Less than ninety days after the claims accrued and more than sixty days before commencement of this action, a written notice of claim was served upon the Port Authority.

25. The instant action is commenced less than one year after the causes of action have accrued.

26. At least thirty days have elapsed since the service of the notice of claim, and adjustment or payment of the claim has been neglected or refused.

27. Plaintiff suffered damage as a result of defendants' actions. Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty, suffered emotional distress, mental anguish, fear, pain, bodily injury, anxiety, embarrassment, humiliation, and damage to his reputation.

SIXTH CLAIM

Negligence

50. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

defendants Samuel and Telesford commenced and continued a prosecution of plaintiff in the absence of probable cause.

63. Defendants Samuel and Telesford's actual malice in the prosecution of plaintiff can be inferred from the absence of probable cause to support the charges.

64. The charges against plaintiff terminated favorably when they were dismissed after being adjourned in contemplation of dismissal.

65. Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty by being held in police custody and forced to appear in court under the threat of the issuance of an arrest warrant and of arrest.

66. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct and abuse of authority stated above, plaintiff sustained the damages alleged herein.
